C. L. HERRING,
Manufacturer of
LIGHTNING RODS,
MILWAUKEE, WIS.

THE ANNUAL destruction of life and property by thunder storms has for years past given increased interest to the subject of Lightning Rods, and it is important that citizens should avail themselves of this means of protection for life and property.

The value and efficacy of the Lightning Rod does not consist wholly in conducting the Electric bolt from the building after it has leapt from the cloud, although this alone is sufficient to commend it to general use. Its chief value and efficacy consists in its power to prevent such explosions. It operates silently by tapping or drawing off the electric fluid from the advancing thunder cloud and thus by causing it to rise as it rolls past averting the danger. It is essential that the laws which regulate the action of the electric fluid should be duly considered, both in their construction and erection. The Rods I propose to furnish are constructed on true scientific principles. By means of screws connecting the parts together in a brass nut they are rendered as perfect as wire, and never by accident become insulated, as when they are united by hooks.

Their diameter is sufficient to conduct the greatest thunderbolt without fusion. The supports of the rod being furnished with glass insulators, all discharge of the electric fluid laterally into the house or anywhere except the earth is prevented.

It is important in order to reap the full benefit of the Lightning Rod, that they should be erected so as to distribute their points on the top of the building to be protected with due reference to the sphere of their attractive and protective power, which is generally estimated should be horizontally the distance of twice their hight.

Possessing, therefore, all the essential requisites of a truly scientific and safe conducting rod if erected so as to present a sufficient number of points, according to the extent of the building and if properly planted in the earth so as to be in no danger of becoming insulated by drought or dryness of the earth, I feel confident that my rods as well for their cheapness as their excellence, deserve and will receive general patronage.

☞ Orders left with G. W. MYGATT, Architect, 207 East Water street, will be promptly attended to.

☞ My Points are entirely different from any heretofore used and the purchaser can have them tested whenever he chooses to do so. mar29-d6m

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Temperance Tour

JEFFERSON, Oct. 22, 1853.

DEAR BROTHER: I wrote you last at the close of the meeting, in Madison. I did not know then—what I have since learned—that Rev. Mr. Lord, the guardian of the consciences of the Madison people, had taken such great pains to prevent the people from hearing. Under his leadership, the ladies of his Society, and those whom they could influence, banded themselves together and agreed not to attend, and to discourage all they could from hearing the lectures of Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Fowler. But from the large number of ladies, as well as men, present at the meeting, we should not have known that any one had attempted to Lord it over God's heritage. The State Convention met the same evening, and Bro. Lord had been very active in getting places for them, so that it was whispered around, before we arrived, that we should not find any place except at the Hotel, and as the Circuit Court was in session, it was thought doubtful if we could get admission there. Dr. J. W. Hunt, however, tendered us a welcome in advance, which Mrs. F. and Mrs. N. accepted, and myself and wife found excellent quarters at the United States Hotel. This house has just passed into new hands, and has been thoroughly renovated and furnished anew. Everything looks clean and neat, and the table is amply supplied. The change is indeed great, and Mr. Dutcher, the proprietor, will be sure of the patronage of those who visit Madison, and who wish to be well taken care of while they stay there. The good people of Madison need never be troubled on our private account, for we shall never knowingly accept the hospitalities of any but friends.

Yesterday, we drove to Ft. Atkinson, and divided our forces, Mrs. Nichols speaking at Jefferson, and Mrs. Fowler and myself at the former place. At both these places, though rumors were circulated that we were not coming, the houses were crowded to their utmost capacity, and a great number were obliged to stand. So the refusal of some of the clergy to notice the meeting, or to allow their church to be opened for us, did not prevent the people from attending.

A County Mass Temperance Convention was held here this afternoon to nominate a Maine Law candidate for Senator. The Convention made choice of Jared F. Ostrander, of Aztalan, a man every way worthy of the office. And if the friends of Temperance do their duty, he will be elected. A large number of ladies were present. Mrs. Fowler and myself addressed the audience, and were followed by Mr. Burleigh, whom we left speaking, while we proceeded to Lake Mills.

Here, this evening, we had a great gathering. The house was packed, till no more could be wedged in, sitting or standing, and the rest had to stand in the entry and outside. We had an excellent meeting, and the people listened for three hours with the deepest interest. There is nothing which shows more strikingly the strong feeling manifested in the Temperance cause, than the anxiety of the people to hear, and their willingness to stand for hours in uncomfortable positions to catch every word that is uttered. There are many noble men and women in this region, whose labors in the Temperance cause, as well as in other departments, are worthy of remembrance.

We were well cared for in the families of A. M. Morison, at Fort Atkinson, of Rev. S. Barnes, at Jefferson, and of Mr. Bragg and Mr. Merriam, at Lake Mills.

WATERTOWN, Monday morning, Oct. 24, 1853.

Yesterday morning, Mrs. Nichols spoke in the Baptist Church at Aztalan, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Chapin, yielding his pulpit for that purpose.

Watertown.

Here we had a crowd at the Methodist Church. This is a hard field for Temperance, it being, so far as rum-drinking is concerned, almost the counterpart of Milwaukee. But we had a most attentive audience, and the truth spoken seemed to find a response in many a heart. Our meetings are very much alike. Everywhere we have a great crowd, the doorways and aisles often being filled, so that we are scarcely able to get into the house. The people, at first, listen with the appearance of curiosity, then they become interested, then absorbed in the subject, and finally the audience give themselves up to the control of the speakers, to be swayed at their will. I speak now of the addresses of the ladies, and not of my own. We usually speak from two and a half to three hours, and the people seem anxious to hear longer.

I see that the agents of the "League" have made appointments to precede us only one day at Burlington, and but two or three days at Racine and Kenosha. And this, too, when our appointments have been published for weeks, and there are so many places where there are no appointments, and where their labors are needed.

At the request of friends, we have changed our appointments, so that we will speak at Mukwonago Saturday afternoon, Nov. 5; at Prospect Hill, Saturday evening, Nov. 5; at Wauwatosa, Sunday, Nov. 6, at two o'clock P. M. S. M. B.

COMING TO THE POINT.—Lawyer Coe, in the News of this morning, asserts that the Free Democrat objects to Barstow because he "impliedly assumes the right to be himself the judge of the Constitutionality" of the Maine Law. All wrong, Mr. Coe. The Constitution throws the responsibility upon him by his oath to judge of the Constitutionality of laws passed by the Legislature, and he has no right to shirk the responsibility. What the Free Democrat does object to, is, that Barstow did not and will not answer the respectful queries put to him, as to whether he believes or thinks the principle of the Maine Law to be Constitutional. Some difference there. Mr. Holton answered the question like an honest man.—Mr. Barstow evades it, as any dishonest man would who expected to trick some one or some party.

Mr. Coe affirms that Mr. Barstow does not even intimate that he would not sign an unconstitutional liquor law. As we undrstand Mr. B's letter it clearly admits the inference, that he would not sign a prohibitory liquor law that he believed unconstitutional. Mr. Coe, however, looks at Mr. B.'s communication through democratic eyes, and is perhaps better qualified to interpret its meaning than we are.

OUR FOREIGN POPULATION.—By the Census of 1850, it appears that Wisconsin has a larger proportion of foreigners, according to her population, than any of her sister States, being in the ratio of a little more than one to five. The total population in 1850, was 305,391; of which 106,695, were foreigners. How important, in view of this fact, that wise counsels should prevail in every department of our Government—that men of liberal principles and just views of our institutions, as a young and growing State, should be elevated to places of public trust and responsibility, instead of political demagogues who would ride into power, reckless alike of the wishes of the people or a desire for the welfare of the State. In Mr. Holton, the people's candidate for the most important station known to our Constitution, we have a guaranty of capability, honesty and liberality of sentiment as regards all these important interests. He is, in short, just such a man, as, if elected, would draw around him the hearty cooperation of all who would be true to the interests of the State.

GOV. SEYMOUR A FREE SOILER.—The New York National Democrat, makes a most pitoous howl over the fact of Gov. Seymour's having appointed John A. Kennedy and Thomas Dunlop, of New York city, Commissioners of Emigration. It says, in conclusion, that "if his ephemeral excellency had dragged the whole State with a horse rake' he could not have found a couple of deeper-dyed coalition free soilers."—What a pity!

☞ In the Eighteenth Senatorial District of New York, composed of Chenango and Otsego counties, Dr. Wm. G. Sands was nominated for the Senate at Mount Morris, recently, by the old Hunkers. According to the National Democrat, the barnburners presented a resolution endorsing the present sof-tshell Administration, which was thrown under the table, whereupon they bolted, and threatened to make another nomination.

GRANVILLE AND MILWAUKEE DISTRICT.—The Democracy of the towns of Granville and Milwaukee met in joint Convention, on Saturday, at Good Hope, to nominate a suitable person to represent the District in the next Legislature. After much balloting, haranguing, liquoring, and disagreeing, the next representation belonging to the town of Granville, the delegates could not agree upon any one person as suitable in that township, and Milwaukee not presenting a candidate, no nomination was made.

NATIONAL EXHIBITION OF HORSES.—At the exhibition of horses, which just came off at Springfield, Mass., about three hundred thorough-bred and first class, were brought upon the ground in procession.—The scene was an exciting one, when the whole number were ordered to break in every direction. All intoxicating drinks were dispensed with, to the disappointment of many "suckers" from New York and other Anti-Maine Law localities.

ANTI-SLAVERY.—Hon. Wm. Jay has written an elaborate paper on the "Mosaic Laws of Servitude," which will appear in the National Era of this and the two succeeding weeks.

William Goodell will also publish in the Era, soon, a series of articles on the "Legal Tenure of Slavery."

Both men are competent to do their subjects justice, and their productions will be sought for.

☞ Public meetings have been held in several of the large towns of England, and will be held in others soon, to influence the Government to call parliament together this fall, and to have it side with Turkey and against Russia. It is expected public opinion will compel the Ministry to take a decided stand against Russian pretensions.

☞ The Albany Transcript says, that three persons have been arrested upon suspicion of being the murderers of the young girl, Catharine Quigley, at Jamaica, L. I., and are in prison awaiting further developments. Blood has been found upon the linen of one of them.

☞ The Waukegan, (Ill.) Chronicle has been enlarged.

More Bolting.

B. Staines, Esq., was nominated at a People's Convention at Kingston last week, to represent the counties of Adams and Sauk in the next Assembly. The regular nominee is C. C. Remington. The Convention passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the County Seat of Sauk county ought to be removed from its present location with a view to the division of the county.

Resolved, That the county of Sauk having decided against the loan to build Public buildings at Baraboo, it is the public sentiment to build at some other place, to be designated by the people.

MENASHA ADVOCATE.—We have received the first number of a paper with this title, published by J. CROWLEY, formerly of the Oshkosh Courier. The paper is to be Democratic in politics, and promises to be "Independent in all things." How a paper devoted to "Democracy," as he understands it, can be "independent," is an enigma which we will not attempt to solve. Perhaps he can. The paper makes a very respectable appearance, and will be furnished to subscribers at $1,50.

Maine Law Candidates.

Allen H. Atwater, of Oak Grove, Dodge Co., is the Maine Law candidate for the Assembly in that district. We trust the people will see that he is elected.

The Convention which nominated Mr. Atwater, recommended J. H. Sherman as a suitable Maine Law candidate for the Senate from that county. A Convention to nominate a candidate for that office will be held at Juneau to-morrow.

SHUTTING THE STABLE DOOR AFTER THE STEED IS STOLEN.—JAMES S. BAKER—after remaining mum so long that no one considered him a candidate for Bank Controller on the Watertown ticket, and his place had been supplied by another name—formally announces through the Madison Argus, that he is not a candidate for that office.

DEPRAVITY.—The Reformed Presbyterian Church at Chicago was entered a few nights ago, and the box containing the contributions for the library fund broken open and its contents abstracted. Chicago turns out some of the most hardened villains that ever went unwhipt of justice. She is decidedly ahead of Milwaukee.

☞ The case of S. Addison Irwin, for robbing the mail some two years ago, was concluded at Chicago on Saturday last, and resulted in the discharge of the defendant. This case has occupied the attention of the Court more or less, for the last two years.

☞ The friends of Temperance in Dodge Co. are wide awake in regard to the passage of the Maine Law. They have resolved that that county shall be the Banner County for the Law, and that Oak Grove shall be the Banner Town of the County.

CENSUS OF DETROIT.—According to a census just completed, the city proper contains a population of 34,436. Total of city and suburbs, 37,436. Of which number 17,165 are males, and 17,270 females. This is an increase of 13,000 in three years.

FIRE IN LOUISVILLE.—A destructive fire occurred in Louisville, Ky., on the night of the 20th. It commenced on Fifth-st., and spread to Main-st., destroying a large number of stores, including the office of the Journal. One man was killed.

HOGS.—The returns to the Auditor of Ohio show the following number of hogs listed for taxation in forty counties of that State for the years 1850, '51, '52, and '53:

	1850	1851	1852	1853
Total Number	859,542	763,669	696,931	1,345,480

RUSSIA WANTS TO BACK OUT.—The London News chronicles what it calls "a positive report, circulating in well informed quarters," that the Emperor of Russia, "recoiling before the combined opposition he has provoked, feels considerable anxiety to abandon his present hostile attitude."

☞ At the Pennsylvania State Fair at Pittsburgh, from 75,000 to 100,000 persons attended each day for a week; not a fight, not a quarrel, not an accident occurred. The amount realized was $16,000.

MR. TICHENOR—Free Democratic candidate for Attorney-General—very handsomely withdraws his name from the canvass, believing it to be the general wish of the Free Democracy to support the People's ticket.

☞ The Michaelmas Fair at Leipsic, Germany, was "highly productive" to all dealers, except jewelers. Woolens and leather sold at advanced prices, and large orders from the United States were received.

☞ Timothy Hagerty is the Democratic nominee for the Assembly in the district comprising the towns of Oak Creek and Franklin.

☞ It is rumored that Mr. Minot has sent in his resignation as Superintendent of the New York and Erie Railroad, to take effect the 10th of October.

☞ On Friday night last there were four fires in Chicago. The loss of property was light.

Mr. Tichenor's Declination.

WAUKESHA, Oct. 24, 1853.

S. M. BOOTH,
Ch'n Free Dem. Executive State Committee:

I see by the Free Democrat, of Saturday last, that the People's Ticket for State officers is filled out, and that you await only the withdrawal of the Free Democratic nominees, to support it.—Believing it to be the wish of many Free Democrats that such a course should be pursued, I do cheerfully decline the nomination for Attorney General, with which I was honored.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,
VERNON TICHENOR.

State Scrip—The design of Wild Cat Operators

We understand that the Hon. gent who heads the Barstow Ticket, has in his possession some 25 or 30,000 dollars of the Improvement Scrip issued under a late law of the Legislature. It is well known that political speculators last winter attempted to get a law through for the purpose of admitting this scrip as security for Banking purposes. The measure will be again attempted this winter, and the design of those who have possession of this scrip is to elect Barstow governor. He is "one of them," having been a speculatot in contracts while Secretary of State, and therefore is considered by these friends of a system of "Wild-Cat banking" as a suitable man to carry out their purposes. In this matter Dennis is their candidate for Bank Controller. He hopes to feather his nest, if he can be elected, as his avaricious character knows no bounds to its rapacity. The bosom friend of Barstow, who has always acted as his adviser and counsellor Pratt of Waukesha, remarked during the Fair, that Dennis was a fine fellow, and would not be particular with his friends as to Bank securities." This may have the appearance of a jest, but there is more truth in it than poetry.

With these two worthies elected we may expect the adoption of measures, which will effectually ruin our Banking system, now but just getting into operation. The enemies of that system or any system which will secure the bill holder from loss, have no hesitation in upholding any rotten or irresponsible system, whereby they may fill their pockets without returning a remuneration. There are in our State a gang who make their living by their wits, and have no hesitation in plundering honest industry, whenever they have a chance, whether it is done under color of law or not. We know that this Barstow gang is composed of such blood suckers who are now licking their chops in anticipation of the spoils almost within their grasp. A man who would be so mean as to purchase up the notes of a spurious irresponsible rag machine for the purpose of paying his day laborers for their sweat and toil, up on a public contract, is capable of anything. This, Barstow is said to have done, by buying and paying out the bills got up by John F. Kimball, and known as the Georgetown money.—Every man in this community knows that this money was without security, and perfectly irresponsible, if the issue choose to make it so.

We civilly and frankly ask our people if they are ready to see our Banking system, said to be the safest in the union prostrated and destroyed, by the election of men to the offices controlling the system, who have for their object the engrafting upon it, of a species of security which will prove as disastrous to our State and finances as were the celebrated Wild Cat and Red Dog Banks, that so long cursed the prosperity of our sister State of Michigan. We are engaged in no common contest. Party ties have little to do with the fight. We find speculators and political gamblers ranged under the democratic standard which they have stolen to serve the devil in. We find them repudiating every principle of economy or reform in our State expenditures, when our people are ground down by taxation, and feel that the addition of a straw's weight must sink the State in poverty. A State Debt yearly increasing, growing out of the careless and profligate expenditure of public funds, for the purpose of maintaining a gang of state paupers, who have subsisted for years out of the public treasury—repudiating the doctrine of distribution of the public lands to the poor but honest settler, and giving them to a gang of bloated leeches who are too lazy to labor for a livelihood, and who fasten themselves upon the body politic and suck out the substance which belongs to the people. Such is the character of the organization who have stolen the democratic banner. They hope to gammon the people into their support, from the common respect shown to the flag under which they rally. We trust that the people will look well to the consequences ere they trust their suffrages to the hands of such men.

Are the people of our state ready to see the prosperity which is now developing itself in every branch of business in our State, blighted and destroyed? Are they ready to see the glorious future just dawning after a night of blackness and despair, again plunged into chaos? Are they ready to see the financial system so gloriously commenced and which promises such flattering results, made the prey of a horde of leeches and speculators, who would willingly destroy it by engrafting upon it a wild cat system of securities! We think not.

By voting for these men, we may expect disaster. By voting against them we may hope that our opening prosperity will be blest with a full fruition.—Watertown Reg.

Mutilation of the Prayer Book.—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Register says, an Episcopal prayer book, published in that city, has a beautiful frontispiece engraving, "representing Christ blessing the sons of men, striking off their fetters, and giving liberty, as well as peace, to the world. It is a beautiful plate, and one of the most spirited heads in the picture is that of a negro. He, too, is lifting his hands in supplication, and the chains are falling from his wrists." This edition is for the North. Another edition, containing the picture, but with the negro and his chains left out, is for the South. Why don't such publishers and pro-slavery churchmen, both North and South, boldly assert, what their practice implies, that the white man's Saviour didn't die on the cross to save "niggers"?

For the Free Democrat.

That's the Question!

Has, or has not Mr. Barstow, in his oft-repeated and much criticised letter, fully committed himself as to the course he will pursue in case he is elected Governor? Or does he stand in the position of the oracle that Crœsus consulted when about going to war, which gave the response, "If an ass cross the river, thou, O, Crœsus, shalt conquer"—reserving the right to apply the term to either General, so that its reputation was not hazarded?

A correspondent of the News has taken the dear people most sorely to do (and above all, that infatuated band, Temperance men,) for their doubting the integrity of Mr. Barstow, after such an explicit avowal. Kind-hearted Mr. C., your bump of credulity is largely developed. You say that Mr. Barstow has said all that he could say, and who could ask of him to sanction an unconstitutional act? You know full well, I presume, that that has been the old scapegoat, that every party nominee has rode for the last twenty years—especially if he wished to dodge two fires.

I acknowledge, Mr. C., that we, the poor people, are immensely ignorant, and know but little of the Maine Law. Will you, from the depths of your legal profundity, condescend to enlighten our ignorance?—We, the people, adore the Constitution; we bow before the Constitution; we would enshrine in our hearts the Constitution; but we ignorantly may break the Constitution. Like simpletons, we have believed what Roger B. Taney has said, and the courts of Rhode Island and Maine have said; and, since "like begets like," Messrs. Booth and Holton have also been led astray. Mr. Holton (I agree with you,) is profoundly ignorant of law, and ought to go to school a quarter. Will you, Mr. C., please take him under your charge?

Dear Mr. Barstow, please pass Mr. C. a stick of candy, and charge it to the people, as aforetime.

Literary Union.

The young men of our City have formed an association for the purpose of mental improvement, and are holding weekly meetings at the Academy for declamation, debate, and exercises in composition, which are said to be quite interesting and spirited. An invitation is extended to all who desire to join in the exercises, or listen to them, to avail themselves of the opportunity presented for improvement.

The exercises for this evening will consist of an Address on the subject of Poetry, and a debate upon the expediency of further enlarging the boundaries of the United States.

The City Fathers and our Streets.

As we feared, winter is again upon us, and hardly a street or sidewalk in the City is in a passable condition. We would not, without just cause, throw any imputation upon our very worthy "officials" for not completing the grades which they have attempted during the season now past. The amount of work necessary to be done to carry out their intentions was truly great; but would it not have been a far better policy to have an eye to the completion of the grade, in a single street, even, than to have attempted what they have—a perfect demolition of the whole City—and failed in completing anything?—It strikes us it would. But now it cannot be remedied, and we are to pass through the winter with every street torn to pieces, and left in a condition absolutely dangerous to life and limb.

Police Court.

William Kelley was tried yesterday for stealing three coats, valued at $18, the property of Solomon Adler, and held to bail in the sum of $250 for his appearance at court, and in default thereof was committed.

Thomas H. Norton was examined in the afternoon on charge of having aided in the escape of a prisoner arrested for robbing Mr. C. Bucher, a resident of Kenosha, of his pocket-book, and was discharged—it appearing that the person he was charged with having aided to escape was not legally arrested.

Feeling in the Rural Districts.

J. W. H., the Sentinel's Reporter, on his way through Dodge and Columbia Counties, writes from Wyocena, Columbia Co., as follows:

'Arriving here, I find a village of about 150 or 200 inhabitants, a fine mill nearly completed, owned and built by a Mr. Dey. The inhabitants here are completely woke up on the La Crosse Railroad and the Prohibitory Liquor Law. I spent a short time with a gentleman who has been a resident of the village for about two years, and is now chairman of the board of supervisors, a strong democrat, an unflinching one what the farmers are apt to call a "square toed one;" his statements were to the effect that the man who run for the Senate or Assembly, must be in favor of the Prohibitory Liquor Law;" that was what they wanted and what they would vote for, and the man who got their votes must state openly before his nomination, that he would use all means in his power to secure the passage of the law. I have recorded this one instance, as it is but a type of the feeling through this county.—Since leaving Waushara, Dodge Co., in visiting Mackford and Granville, in Marquette Co., Fort Winnebago, Portage City, Wyocena, Marcellon, Cambria, in Columbia Co., I have found but three who have stated that they would vote against it. I see by the Milwaukee papers that the editor of the Free Democrat has been traveling through parts of the State, and writes of the feeling in favor of the law. He may well write to that effect, if he had been in these parts, he would have been puzzled to find a man against it, while whole townships have pledged themselves, regardless of party feeling, to vote for the law. The word "constitutional," which occurs in Barstow's letter on the law, is regarded by the masses here as inserted to please his own party, i. e., as an intimation that it will be easy to find constitutional" difficulties in the bill, and then veto it; in other words, that its (as I heard an old farmer remark yesterday) "a place to get out at." Had Farwell accepted the people's nomination, he would have carried this county by a heavy majority. There are several settlements of Welch in the county, and I believe it was computed that they cast altogether about 500 votes, all of which without exception will be in favor of the Prohibitory liquor law."

The Country Wide Awake.

Prairie du Sac, Oct. 19, 1853.

Editor of the Free Democrat:

The work in favor of a prohibitory Liquor Law goes bravely on. Success seems to attend every effort. The people are beginning to understand their true interests, and are fast appreciating that of demagogues who would fatten on others' toil. Experience convinces me that it is only necessary to have the true intent and real workings of a Prohibitory Law understood, in order to be very generally approved by all law-abiding citizens. Weekly meetings are held in all the villages in the county, as far as I can hear, and in some of the country districts.—The county lecturers are penetrating the remotest parts, cheering them on by word of mouth, backed by scores of Maine Law Tracts and the State League. We have a League in our village—meetings Wednesday evenings—at each of which we have a Lecture, a manuscript paper read, called the "Temperance Torch-Light," discussions, and then miscellaneous business. The officers are

Rev. E. G. Miner, Pres't; W. P. Butler, Vice Pres't; H. H. Hecox, Rec. Sec'y; J. H. Northrop, Corres. Sec'y; J. H. Northrop, Editor; Rev. R. J. Harvey, Ass't Editor; J. A. Kellogg, H. H. Hecox, Miss Emma Kimball, Miss Mary Pound, Business Com.; Miss Emma Kimball, Miss Mary Pound, Miss Delia Worthington, Com. to circulate Tracts.

We circulate from this village 150 copies of the League, and some 2300 tracts—part in German. Every house has a copy of the League and a series of tracts.

The mass meeting at the Bluffs was well attended in the evening. Spirited resolutions were passed after a thorough discussion. The following resolution was discussed during the evening session, and passed without a dissenting voice. In addition to the gentlemen who joined in the discussion, Misses Kimball and Pound were called out and acquitted themselves nobly:

Resolved, That the Temperance cause particularly interests the females, therefore they are equally entitled and solicited to participate in all our discussions, and that they be further requested to organize themselves into committees for the purpose of attending the polls on election day.

Near the close of the meeting we had a rising vote of those in favor of the Maine Law.—Most every one in the house arose, and not one against it. Committees were formed in that and adjoining school districts to give tracts and papers to every house. We have original songs by the Choir, two of which I send you for publication. The first is by Miss Mary Pound.

The Temperance Call.

Tune—"Nelly Bly."

Arouse ye! to the battle haste,
Each friend to truth and right,
We've not a moment now to waste,
Then forward, to the fight.
Hi Freemen! Ho Freemen! listen to the call,
We come to you,
We call to you,
To roll on the ball.

The conquest which we wish to gain,
Concerneth one and all;
It is the noble law of Maine,
For which we loudly call.
Hi Freemen! Ho Freemen! &c.

Our battle ground is all around,
O'er this our infant State;
Wherever rum-shops do abound,
To fall will be their fate.
Hi Freemen! Ho Freemen! &c.

The weapons which we shall employ
Rum sellers will provoke;
For it is rum we would destroy
By each man's Maine Law vote.
Hi Freemen! Ho Freemen! &c.

Come Temperance men and women too,
Come forward each and all;
We want the help of all who're true
To kill King Alcohol.
Hi Freemen! Ho Freemen! &c.

Maine Law Song.

BY. W. P. BUTLER.

Tune—"Boatman Dance."

Intemperance o'erspreads our land,
We hear the victims cry for aid;
We join to lend a helping hand,
To break the bond strong drink has made.
Then come, drinkers come,
Let us drink no more rum;
Like noble souls, rush to the polls,
And ballot for the Maine Law.
High ho! we all will go
For old King Alchy's overthrow.

The documents are spread broad-cast,
By the Ladies far and near;
We know the Law will soon be pass'd
If the fair ones persevere.
Then come, &c.

The bravest ones among us all
Were once the slaves to drinking rum;
They are the ones that loudest call
For everybody now to come.
Then come, &c.

The moderate drinker is a prop
For gutter drunkards to lean on;
Should he make up his mind to stop
Their great upholder is gone.
Then come, &c.

We want the Maine Law to protect
The worse than orphan and widow;
Oh, is there one who can object,
And against the Maine Law go?
Then come, &c.

Five States have got the law made fast,
Triumphant millions raise their voice—
Wisconsin's die will soon be cast,
And thousands more will then rejoice.
Then come, Freemen come,
Let us vote for no more rum;
Like noble souls rush to the polls,
And ballot for the Maine Law.
High ho! we all will go
For old King Alchy's overthrow.

We have two Maine Law candidates (Whig and Dem.) in the field for the Legislature, and to-day the rummies, or rather rummy, have nominated another. The nominee hired wagon loads of the Sauk City Dutch to go to the so-called mass meeting, and by dealing out beer and promises bountifully—and no man could do it with a better grace—attending the meeting himself, feeding his satellites, and moving that himself be unanimously declared nominated, and voting aye on that motion, he was nominated. So disgusting was the whole farce, that most all of the Americans present and opposed to the two candidates in the field, were ready to shed the tear of sorrow at the degradation of poor human nature—loudly proclaiming that the nomination was not fit to be made.

Fires.—The fires are still on the run, and nearing the city. Some apprehension of danger is felt by our citizens, and we understand that many of them are turning out to go and help to arrest the progress of the flames. It gained nearly a quarter of a mile yesterday and last night.

We also learn that the fires on the Canada side of the river are still raging to a fearful extent, and a great amount of timbered property is already destroyed. We have not ascertained the extent of damage to farms and crops, but from the rumours afloat we presume it to be considerable.

The smoke this morning was worse than any previous. The atmosphere was perfectly 'blue' with it, and early in the morning it was difficult to navigate except by "feeling one's way along.—Det. Trib. 20 inst.

Another Koszta Case.—A case involving the rights of a naturalized American citizen is now under the attention of the Legation at Berlin. Henry Van Peusche, a Prussian, was condemned, in 1849, to four years' imprisonment for an offence against the press. In 1850 he fled to the United States and took the requisite steps to naturalize as a citizen. About a year since he returned, on private business, to Hamburg, where he was arrested and given up to the Prussian authorities. Since then he has remained in the jail of Leignitz, and claims the interference of the United States in his behalf.

☞ The Cincinnati Commercial says: Mr. J. Mitchell, who testified, in the late Kissane forgery trial, as being the principal person who drew up the forged checks, came to this city on Monday, and next morning offered to give himself up, that a fair examination of the facts may be had. As yet nothing has been done; but Mr. Mitchell says he will remain here to give any and all persons, who may bring these charges against him, an opportunity of proving them.

The Prize-Fighters.—Morrissey makes public announcement that he has received the stake-money, $2,000, according to the decision of the referee of the fight. Sullivan, meantime, publicly challenges Morrissey to another fight, "man and money now ready," for $5,000; the match to come off in six weeks. "Yankee" claims to be the victor, and offers to give the money to any charitable institution. He adds that he (Sullivan) is Morrissey's "superior in a twenty-four foot ring contest, and in liberality."

A New Star.—A few evenings since some of the class in astronomy connected with the Great Falls School, were out on a star gazing excursion, and during their rambles discovered what they decided to be a new star, and with no small degree of satisfaction, ran to the house of their teacher, who by the way was suffering from an ill turn, and insisted upon his taking a peep at the new star.—The teacher was forced to comply, but the star turned out to be a lantern fastened to the tail of a kite.

A Case of Conscience.—A note signed "The Guilty Author," was received by Messrs. Hood & Tobey one day last week, enclosing a ring which had been abstracted from their counter. The author deemed it a duty to God and man to make restitution for the wrong. Attached to the ring was a slip of paper, on which was written, "Gold is tempting, but it will perish."—Albany Arg.

Drowned.—Wm. Bechtol, aged 19, and Miss Ellen Fuller, aged 16 years, we have the sad intelligence, were drowned while crossing the Humbolt river. Miss Fuller falling in, young Bechtol jumped in to save her, and both went down in a vortex of that "death's stream."

Messrs. Bechtol and Fuller, started from this place last spring for California, and we understand they and the remaining members of their families arrived in good health.—Sauk Co. Standard.

New Paper.—Mr. Walden Coleman informs us that he intends publishing a German Paper at Sauk; to commence in three or four weeks. There are Germans enough in the Co. to support a paper of that character, handsomely.—Ib.

Lively.—It is indeed cheering to see so much activity as our village has presented this Fall. The streets are daily crowded with teams. Our merchants are as "busy as bees," mechanics are doing well, and everything betokens happiness and prosperity.—Ib.

We notice quite a number of strangers in town; principally from the New England States. Some of them have bought farms, and intend settling with us. Sauk County is being rapidly settled by industrious and enterprising people.—Ib.

Hon. Byron Kilbourn, Chief Engineer of the M. & L. C. R. has been in town and made arrangements to send out a surveying company from this place to explore the proposed route of the railroad.—Ib.

The Buffalo Express says, that from all it can learn, the embarrassments of Simeon Draper are of a temporary character, and that his affairs will be adjusted within a short time. He continues business as usual and public confidence does not appear to be withdrawn from him to any considerable extent.

The Queen City.—We learn from a private telegraph despatch, that the Queen City sunk in the harbor of Erie yesterday morning. The particulars were not stated, but just the fact that she had sunk. As the water is not over thirty feet deep in the harbor, the boat will be easily raised.—Detroit Advertiser, Saturday.

The Cincinnati papers state, on reliable authority, that the parties implicated Martha Washington conspiracy case, have all been indicted in Arkansas, for murder in the first degree.

I consulted many doctors, and tried remedy after remedy, with hopes of obtaining relief, but I was disappointed in all, until I tried your invaluable Pills, which I gratefully acknowledge have been the sole means of effecting a cure of my complaint, and I am now in the enjoyment of excellent health." oc19 1w

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS!

HEALTH FOR THE STATES!!

Extraordinary Cure of loss of Health, Disordered Stomach, Indigestion and Determination of Blood to the Head.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Loyd, of Erw-wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by a loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,

June 6th, 1852. (Signed) JOHN LLOYD.

Miraculous Cure of Dropsy.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, Dropsy, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skillfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks.

(Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

Infallible Cure of a Stomach Complaint with Indigestion and Violent Head-Aches.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am requested by a lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years, herself and family suffered from continued bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head Aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarletina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

(Signed) S. GOWEN.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throats
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone & gravel

To the Citizens of Milwaukee!

THE CITIZENS of Milwaukee are cautioned against purchasing LIGHTNING RODS from transient pedlars who are now flooding this city—making false representations in order to effect sales and giving G. W. Mygatt as reference, which was done without his knowledge or consent, and also saying that they are employed by me, and other representations to that effect. I employ no person, either in making sales or putting up rods, and those wishing for a GENUINE article, can procure them of me or G. W. MYGATT, Architect, 227 East Water st. In purchasing of transient men, you are very liable to be imposed upon by buying a bogus article, as many were two or three years ago.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

WELL, the BARNUM HUMBUG has been exhibited, and we are all satisfied with it, and we will have to be satisfied with whatever is presented before us; for what else is there in this cold, miserable world, but Humbugs? Lawyers are Humbugs, Doctors are Humbugs, Bankers are Humbugs, Merchants are Humbugs, Auctioneers would try to be Humbugs, and in fact every thing is a Humbug, with two exceptions, viz: Handsome Ladies and a group of small Children, are the only realities we have in this world. Now, I have no fault to find, nor do I care what any one says, for there is no friend so near and dear to you as yourself, and all you should wish of that friend is to do right. Now, I again call your attention to this STOCK OF DRY GOODS, amounting to about Ten Thousand Dollars, which I now offer to any one on 6, 12, or 18 months without any interest, at what they cost.—Real Estate security will be taken. To any one who wants to go into the Dry Goods Trade, here is an opportunity that seldom offers.
